OF
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. CONSOLIDATED

Article I OFFICES

SECTION 1. Principal Office. The principal office of the Corporation shall be located at Charlotte, North Carolina, and the address of the registered office of the Corporation in the State of Delaware and the name of the registered agent at such address shall be as specified in the Certificate of Incorporation.

SECTION 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may have offices at such other places, either within or without the State of Delaware as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine, or as the affairs of the Corporation may require.

Article II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Place of Meetings. All meetings of the stockholders shall be held at the principal office of the Corporation, or at such other place, either within or without the State of Delaware, as shall be designated in the notice of the meeting or agreed upon by a majority of the stockholders entitled to vote thereat.

SECTION 2. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held within or without the State of Delaware at such time as may be determined by the Board of Directors. Such meetings shall be held for the purpose of electing directors of the Corporation and for the transaction of such other business as may be properly brought before the meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the stockholders may be called at any time by the Chairman of the Board, any Vice-Chairman, President, Secretary or the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or by any stockholder pursuant to the written request of the holders of not less than one-tenth (1/10th) of the total vote entitled to be cast at the meeting.

SECTION 4. Notice of Meeting. Written or printed notice stating the time and place of the meeting shall be delivered not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date thereof, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, Chairman of the Board, the Secretary or other person calling the meeting, to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting.

In the case of an annual meeting, the notice of meeting need not specifically state the business to be transacted thereat, unless it is a matter, other than the election of directors, on which the vote of the stockholders is expressly required by the provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law. In the case of a special meeting, the notice of meeting shall specifically state the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

When a meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. When a meeting is adjourned for less than thirty (30) days in any one adjournment, it is not necessary to give notice of the adjourned meeting other than by announcement at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken.

SECTION 5. Voting Lists. At least ten (10) days before each meeting of stockholders, the Secretary shall prepare an alphabetical list of the stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting with the number of shares held by each and the list shall be open to examination of any stockholder at any time during the usual business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. This list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to inspection by any stockholder present during the whole time of the meeting.

SECTION 6. Quorum. Subject to the provisions of Article IX hereof, the holders of shares representing a majority of the total outstanding vote of all shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy shall constitute a quorum at meetings of stockholders. If there is no quorum at the opening of a meeting of stockholders, such meeting may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of a majority of the shares voting on the motion to adjourn; and, at any adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the original meeting.

The stockholders at a meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to do business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough stockholders to leave less than a quorum present.

SECTION 7. Voting of Shares. The holders of shares of the Corporation's classes of capital stock shall be entitled to the respective voting rights granted in Article Fourth of the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation.

In all matters other than the election of directors, the affirmative vote of a majority of the total votes of all of the shares of the Corporation's capital stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on the subject matter at a meeting of stockholders at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the stockholders on that matter, unless the vote of a greater number or by class is required by law, by the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-laws. Directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes as provided in Article III Section 3.

Voting on all matters except the election of directors shall be by voice vote or by a show of hands, unless the holders of one-tenth (1/10th) of the total votes represented at the meeting shall, prior to the voting on any matter, demand a ballot vote on that particular matter.

If any stockholder so demands, election of directors shall be by written ballot.

SECTION 8. Informal Action by Stockholders. Any action which may be taken at a meeting of the stockholders may be taken without a meeting, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted and filed with the Secretary of the Corporation, to be kept in the Corporate minute book. Every written consent shall bear the date of signature of each stockholder who signs the consent, which date shall be no earlier than 60 days prior to the date such consent is filed with the Secretary.

Article III

Directors need not be residents of the State of Delaware or stockholders of the Corporation.

SECTION 3. Election of Directors. Except as provided in Section 5 of this Article, the directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of stockholders; and those persons who receive the highest number of votes shall be deemed to have been elected.

The Board of Directors may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, from time to time designate other committees of the Board, with such lawfully delegable powers and duties as it thereby confers, to serve at the pleasure of the Board and shall, for these committees, elect a director or directors to serve as the member or members, designating, if it desires, other directors as alternative members who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. No committee may exercise any of the following powers: amend the Certificate of Incorporation (except fixing preferred stock terms); adopt an agreement of merger with any entity other than a subsidiary; recommend to stockholders a sale of substantially all of the Corporation's assets; recommend to stockholders the dissolution or revocation of dissolution of the Corporation; or amend the By-laws.

SECTION 8. Indemnification of Directors and Officers. The Corporation shall indemnify to the fullest extent permitted by law any person made, or threatened to be made, a party to an action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he, his testator or intestate is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or serves or served any other corporation at the request of the Corporation. The Corporation may, but shall not be obligated to, maintain insurance at its expense to protect itself and any such person against expense or loss arising from any such action, suit, or proceeding.

The indemnification provided by this Section shall apply to acts and transactions occurring heretofore or hereafter and shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification are entitled under any statute, certificate or articles of incorporation, by-laws, agreement, vote of stockholders or directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in any other capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be an officer or director and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.
